WELCOME

We look forward to seeing you in Indianapolis! Our 2011 Annual Conference lineup of speakers, presenters and sessions is outstanding—and you won’t want to miss a minute of it! Join us as we view Supervised Visitation ... “Through the Eyes of a Child”

SPEAKER SPOTLIGHT

STACEY PATTON

“Through the Eyes of a Child”

Stacey Patton is a noted author, writer, teacher, child advocate and activist. Patton, a native of Montclair, NJ spent five years of her childhood in foster care and many more in an abusive home. Stacey will share her experiences as a child with early attempts of “Supervised Visitation.”

Stacey Patton is the author of That Mean Old Yesterday, and is also a professor at Montclair State University. She has written for The Washington Post, The Baltimore Sun, New York Newsday, and Scholastic magazine and is the recipient of numerous journalism awards and academic honors. She has made numerous media appearances including on NPR, The Brian Lehrer show, WBAI, and many more.

PAT STANISLASKI

“Why Some Bounce Back and Some Never Do” — Resilience in Those Who Experience Childhood Abuse

This plenary will examine sources of resilience in children, responses and conditions that foster resilience and the relationship between protective factors and resilient children. It will also offer professional and personal suggestions for what parents and providers can do to promote resilience in their children. In addition, Ms. Stanislaski will offer suggestions to help SV professionals to be resilient in their own work.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

THE 2011 NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD MEMBERS ARE NOW OPEN. FOUR POSITIONS ARE OPEN FOR THIS YEAR’S ELECTION, WHICH WILL BE HELD IN INDIANAPOLIS, AT THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING ON MAY 13, 2011. Nominations can be made at: svnetwork.net/election.asp

PLENARY SESSION:
JUDGES PANEL: "CONSIDERING THE BEST INTERESTS OF CHILDREN IN SUPERVISED VISITATION"

What do Judges expect from Supervised Visitation providers? How do they weigh the interests of children when making visitation decisions and how might that impact our work? Our guest panel of Judges will field questions from the audience to help understand how court systems view the impact of supervised visitation.

PRE CONFERENCE INSTITUTE:
“USER-FRIENDLY PARENT EDUCATION: FROM THE CLASSROOM TO THE VISIT ROOM”

BRENDA TULLY and XUAN TRAN-WALSH,
The New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children

Cost: $60

An optional program for providers interested in incorporating Parent Education into their programs, this workshop focuses on how the integration of parent education programs helps to further support coaching with supervised visitation. Identifying common topics taught in parent education programs, this workshop will give the visit supervisor concrete examples of how the parent can practice the skills learned or enhanced in parent education classes during supervised visits.

POST CONFERENCE INSTITUTE:
“THROUGH THE EYES OF A PROGRAM MANAGER”

ROB STRAUS, SVN Founder
DORIE TWIST, Board Treasurer SVN
JUDY NEWMAN, Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General

Cost: $60

This institute will focus on specific challenges faced by Program Administrators who manage a supervised visitation center and/or practice. Veteran SV Directors will facilitate roundtable discussions in three specific areas:

Financial Management: Writing a Budget, Tracking Income & Expenses, financial accountability

Policy Development/Documentation: Developing a Grievance Procedure, writing policies, quality improvement, and tracking outcomes

Program Referrals: Community Connections, Engaging with the courts/Judges, Responding to impossible court orders, educating referral sources, Advisory Committees
